

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Thursday, January 16, 2003

Contact: John Lazet
(517) 373-3760

Cropsey Welcomed Guests from Montcalm and Ionia Counties to Capitol

LANSING-Senator Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, welcomed guests from Montcalm and Ionia County to the Michigan State Capitol on January 8, following the official swearing-in ceremony of the Michigan State Senate.

“I am proud to serve the residents of Montcalm and Ionia Counties and appreciate all the friends, including Art and Marsha Perkins from Belding and the Kalmata family from Greenville for visiting their State Capitol and making this a very special day,” Cropsey said. “I look forward to working with Judy Emmons and Gary Newell and serving the people of Montcalm and Isabella Counties.”

Cropsey is the Chair of the standing Judiciary Committee and is a member of the Appropriations Committee. He will serve as the Chair of the Judiciary/Corrections Appropriations Subcommittee, Vice Chair of the K-12 Appropriations Subcommittees, Vice Chair of the Retirement Appropriations Subcommittee, and a member of the Capitol Outlay Appropriations Subcommittee.

Note: A downloadable photograph of Senator Cropsey with his guests from Montcalm and Ionia County are available on the Senate Photowire, <http://www.senate.state.mi.us/gop/photowire/>.